Area of Practice

Residential real estate sales, and marketing.

Experience

Born to a very real-estate oriented family, I grew up appreciating the different aspects of development, marketing, and sales. I have an extensive background in hospitality as well as spacial and event planning with a large focus on customer care and satisfaction. I feel very fortunate to be from and to work one of the most desired cities to live in.

Professional Affiliations

Member of Denver Board of Realtors
MetroList Multiple Listing Service

Community & Personal

As a native, I have spent my life learning to navigate and find the best parts of this great, big city. I have had the pleasure of living and working here since graduating from the University of Denver. I live in the historic Denver Country Club neighborhood of Driving Park Place with my two Chihuahuas.
