14. These covenants and restrictions are to run with the land, and shall be binding on all parties and persons claiming ownership thereto.

ARTICLE III PROPERTY RIGHTS

1. The Developer or any future Homeowner's Association that may be formed may establish minimum assessments for the benefit of the subdivision. Each Owner of any Lot by acceptance of a deed thereof, whether or not it shall be so expressed in such deed, is deemed to covenant and agree to pay to any Association formed or any future: (1) annual assessments or charges, and (2) special assessments for capital improvements, such assessments to be established and collected as hereinafter provided. The annual and special assessments, together with interest, costs and reasonable attorney's fees, shall be a charge on the land and shall be a continuing lien upon the property against which each such assessment is made and may be recorded of record. Each such assessment, together with interest, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees, shall also be the personal obligation of the person who was the Owner of such property at the time when the assessment fell due. The personal obligation for delinquent assessments shall not pass to his successors in title unless expressly assumed by them but, if delinquent at the time of sale, and no provision has been paid from payment, then the lien expressed by this provision shall continue, notwithstanding said sale.

2. Attorney Fees and Court Costs: In the event that the Developer or any Future Association that may be formed, should, in the enforcement of these restrictions shall incur, legal expenses or court costs in any proceeding at law or at equity, it shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney fees and court costs, which will be assessed against the lot Owner(s) which is found to be in violation of such restrictions.
3. Abatement or Removal of Violations: The Developer or any subsequent Association formed shall have the right, in the event of an obvious and open violation of these covenants, shall have the right, acting for itself or acting through appointment of its duly designated agent or representative, to enter upon the property where such violations exists and summarily abate or remove the same at the expense of the Owner, and such entry and abatement or removal shall not be deemed as trespass or any other civil or criminal act, the permission and consent thereto being given hereby both express and implied by the acceptance of the Title Deed to the property within this subdivision and the rights vested by these Declarations.
4. Following the disassociation of the Developer, any future Association that may be formed or any Owner shall have the right to enforce, by any proceeding at law or in equity, all restrictions, conditions, covenants, reservations, liens, and charges now or hereafter imposed by the provisions of this Declaration. Failure by any future Association formed or by any Owner to enforce any covenant or restriction herein contained shall in no event be deemed a waiver of the right to do so thereafter.

- 5. Invalidation of any one of these covenants or restrictions by judgment or court order shall in no way affect any other provisions, which shall remain in full force and effect.

- 6. The covenants and restrictions of this Declaration shall run with and bind the owners of all lots within the subdivision, for a term of twenty (20) years from the date this Declaration is recorded, after which time they shall be automatically extended for successive periods of ten (10) years. The Developer or any future Association that may be formed, may amend these covenants and restrictions at any time as follows:
 - (a) During the first twenty (20) year period by an amending instrument signed by not less than ninety percent (90%) of the Lot Owners, and thereafter by an amending instrument signed by not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the Lot Owners.
 - (b) Any amendment must be recorded in the Probate Court of Houston County, Alabama and make specific reference to the recorded Plat and these Declarations.
